Description

This recently completed villa with stunning sea views is nestled high on Kata hill and less than 1.5km from the beach. The exterior is a fusion of modern design aspects with traditional Thai style design opening up to a breathtaking interior. The property was just recently completed by an American contractor to be his own private luxury winter home. By importing ultra-high end materials and furnishings from four different continents, this villa is right at home in the dreams of even the most discerning buyers the world over. Once you step foot inside, you will quickly see that nothing about this build was rushed, no detail was overlooked, no shortcut taken, and certainly no expense was spared while creating this one-of-a-kind masterpiece. With a meticulous eye for detail and by personally doing the work himself while leading a very small handpicked team of subcontractors, the owner has created a villa that showcases a level of quality, materials and workmanship that most people only dream about! The property includes a semi-detached large 'studio' apartment which is fully furnished and located under the house at street level, providing instant income potential or additional guest suite with complete sound and privacy separation. The house is fully furnished and move in ready, just bring your clothes – You literally won't need anything else! Everything you could want is included with this exceptionally furnished, turn-key property.
