Description

From the outside the villas looks very much like a Thai villa. The traditional wave type roofs bearing down in an imposing manner are a constant reminder that you're in beautiful Thailand. Step inside and you'll be struck by the pleasing familiarity of the place thanks to the distinctly Western influence on decors. Spend relaxing times in the pool cum Jacuzzi or admire the panoramic views of Patong the villa promises you opulence aplenty amid exciting holidays. The living area is generous in proportion and designed in an open manner to accommodate twelve guests in comfort without sacrificing privacy. A large sofa in the living area sets the scene for convivial get-togethers. Large glass windows fronting the lounge offer unhindered views of the pool and the magnificence of Patong bay in the distance. Buddhist and Thai artefacts standing out amidst the familiar European decor create a stylish contrast between local culture and modern opulence. Designed to pamper the senses the villa is a boon especially for lovers of good food. The tantalising prospect of savouring the best of European and Thai cuisine prepared in two separate kitchens is sure to break the resolve of even the most steadfast dieter. The dining table that seats 12 guests is a wonderful place to strengthen bonds of friendship as you savour the array of traditional Thai fare that makes its way from the Thai kitchen in the villa. The European kitchen comes equipped with all essentials of fine dining like refrigerator wine fridge microwave gas hob and oven. Stylish loungers dotting the expansive pool deck tempt you with the enticing prospects of warm sunlight and stunning views of the sea below.
